A) Sampson, a long-haired Siamese cat, has led a charmed life; that is, until recently. His elderly caregiver was forced to unexpectedly leave her home when she became seriously ill – and left Sampson behind. At over ten years old, nearly toothless and living outdoors, Sampson was lost without the only caregiver he's ever known. Every penny of your sponsorship will help find homes for cats like Sampson, who truly have nowhere else to go.

B) Did you know that about 10% of cats living in outdoor feral colonies are actually tame? Lost or abandoned and lacking "street smarts", they suffer more than their feral colony mates. Felix is one of those previously-indoor cats found living in a feral colony. He nearly lost his life when his caregiver abandoned him. Amazingly, a kind neighbor found him, starving and scared. Sponsor Felix and you'll save the life of an abandoned tame cat, who wouldn't otherwise have been able to survive on the streets.

C) Words can't explain the desperation of animals caught in a hoarding situation. Tino was rescued last year (from one of many hoarders) right here in Utah. Living in filth beyond description, Tino and his fellow house mates were rescued and given the medicine, food and comfort they've always deserved – and a second chance at life. By sponsoring Tino, you'll save the lives of innocent kittens and cats stuck in serious and desperate situations.

D) Silver is a special guy! Sterilized through a Trap, Neuter, Return (TNR) program, Silver has made great friends with several of the human (and feline) families in his new neighborhood. According to Silver, any cat door he finds was put there just for him! With such a great personality, it's no wonder the neighbors weren't angry – but actually adopted him as their indoor/outdoor feral cat. Your gift sponsorship will save the life a lost, scared, unwanted but fabulous feline like Silver!
